

A RACE INITIATIVE BOOK CLUB LUNCHTIME EVENT

in Collaboration with the Kalamazoo Valley Museum,
the Arcadia Committee for Cultural Understanding and Kazoo Books

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 2014

Kalamazoo Valley Museum

230 N. Rose Street

12:00 Noon

- * Unraveling the White Privilege—not?
- * Psychiatrist talks Race and Human Development
- * New Orleans Mayor Talks Racial Healing
- * Tim Wise Talks: A New Demonizing Trend?
- * Can Sexual Orientation and Racial Healing Coexist?

A Safe Place to Talk About Race features conversations between Sharon E. Davis, a founding member of the Institute for the Healing of Racism and host of the VoiceAmerica radio talk show, and some of the most respected leaders on race and culture in America.

Join us for a panel discussion with Ms. Davis, WMU Professor, James Croteau, and members of the Race Initiative Book Club.

Discussion and book signing follow the presentation.

Bring your lunch. Beverages and dessert will be provided.